Curriculum Vitae

1 Personal Data

Name: François LANGOT
Birth: 14 September 1965
Citizenship: French
Family Status: Married, 2 children
Office Address:

GAINS, Université du Maine,
Avenue Olivier Messiaen,
72085 Le Mans Cedex 9, France.

e-mail: flangot@univ-lemans.fr
page web: http://www.univ-lemans.fr/~flangot

2 Present Positions

• Full-Professor at the University of Le Mans.
• Director of the GAINS, the economics research center of the University of Le Mans (http://www.univ-lemans.fr/gains)
• Research fellow at CEPREMAP-PSE
• Research fellow at EUREQua - University of Paris I

3 Past Positions

• Assistant-Professor, University of Paris IX-Dauphine: 1994-1996.
4 Education

- September 1989: Master in Mathematical Economics and Applied Macroeconomics (University of Paris I)
- January 1994: PhD in Economics (University of Paris I - Panthéon - Sorbonne)
  Supervisor: Pierre-Yves Hénin, Professor, University of Paris I,
  Ph-D committee:
  - A. d’Autume, Professor, University of Paris I,
  - G. Ballot, Professor, University of Paris II,
  - M. Hammour, Professor, MIT. Boston,
  - H. Sneessens, Professor, IRES University of Louvain,
  - A. Trognon, CREST-INSEE.
- June 1996: “Agrégation des Facultés de Droit et de Sciences Economiques”.

5 Awards and Grants as Principal Investigator

1. Regional Grant for Research: “Growth, unemployment and labor market institutions in European Regions” (Project acronym: GLOBCROI).
   This project regroups the University of Le Mans and the University of Nantes.
   End of the contract 2009.

2. Project acronym: TAXBEN, “Tax/benefit systems and growth potential of the EU”. Scientific coordinator for the CEPREMAP.
   Sixth framework programme priority 8 Topic 3.1. Task 4: “Impacts of tax/benefit levels for the pursuit of sustainable development, employment, pensions, social cohesion”
   This Project regroups the “Centre for European Policy Studies” (CEPS), Belgium, the “The Research Institute of the Finnish Economy” (ETLA), Finland, the “Centre d’ Etudes Prospectives et d’ Information Internationales” (CEPII), France, the “Centre d’ Etudes Prospectives d’ Economie Mathématique” (CEPREMAP), France, the “Netherlands Bureau for Economic Policy Analysis” (CPB), The Netherlands, the “Konjunkturinstitutet” (NIER), Sweden, and the “Center for Policy Studies” (PRAXIS), Estonia.

3. Regional Grant for Research: “Minimum income and unemployment”

4. Prime Ministry of France Grant for economic research: “On the interaction between retirement age and low employment rate of the seniors in France”,

5. Prime Ministry of France Grant for economic research: “Low employment rate of the seniors: How to reform the social security system by introducing incentive schemes for delaying retirement age?”,
CEPREMAP. End of the contract 2003.

6. French Employment Ministry Grant for economic research: “Minimum wage and social minimum incomes: the impact on the wage offer distribution”,
CEPREMAP. End of the contract 2002.

7. Prime Ministry of France Grant for economic research: “An evaluation of the social security reform in France.”

8. French Finance Ministry Grant for economic research: “On the redistributive impacts of the French social security system”,

6 Conference Organization, Committee and Referee

40 papers will be presented during this conference. The scientific committee is composed by O.J. Blanchard (MIT), J.O Hairault (PSE-University of Paris 1) and R. Rogerson (Arizona State University). Among the participants, there will be E. Prescott (Nobel Prize), T. Sargent, L. Ljungqvist, D. Acemoglu, P. Cahuc, F. Kramarz,...

This conference will be financed by the ADRES. A selection of the presented papers will be published in a special issue of the journal “Annales d’Economie et Statistiques”. I will be the Editor of this volume.

This conference regrouped all the participants of the TAXBEN project and Katri Kosonen, Jean-Pierre De Laet, Beata Heimann and Emanuela Tassa from DG Taxud, EU Commission, Ray Barrell, NIESR and Jan In’t Veld from DG ECFIN, EU Commission and Benjamin Carton from French Ministry of Finance.

200 papers were presented during this conference. The Plenary Speakers were Jeremy Greenwood (University of Rochester), George Mailath (University of Pennsylvania) and Jean Tirole (IDEI-Toulouse and MIT).

The Society of Economic Dynamics regroups a large number of macroeconomists (approximately 2000 members). The presidents of this society have been successively T. Sargent (Stanford University), E. Prescott (University of Minnesota), D. Mortensen (University of Western Ontario), T. Cooley (New York University) and B. Jovanovic (New York University).

- Program committee of the annual meeting of T2M (Theory and Methods in Macroeconomics) conference, since 1998.

- Referee for the following reviews:

7 Published Papers

7.1 In English

6
7.2 In French

8 Books

In English

In French

9 Revised and Submitted Papers

Under revision (2nd round) for International Economic Review.

Under revision for Labour Economics.

Submitted to American Economic Review.

Old available version untitled: “The Interaction between Retirement and Job Search: A Global Approach to Older Workers Employment”, IZA discussion paper n° 1984,

Submitted to Journal of the European Economic Association.

Submitted to Journal of Evolutionary Economics.

10 Working Papers

11 Conferences

- NBER Summer Institut on Social Security
- Society of Economic Dynamics
- Society of Labor Economics
- Summer Meeting of the North American Econometric Society
- International Conference on Computing Economic and Finance
- Econometric Society Winter Meeting
- Econometric Society European Meeting
- European Economic Association
- European Association of Labor Economy Meeting
- Theories and Methods in Macroeconomics
- Société Canadienne de Sciences Economiques
- Association Francaise de Sciences Economiques
12 Supervision of PhD Students

12.1 Defended PhD Thesis

1. A. Chéron, Full-Professor, University of Le Mans.
   “Labor market dynamics in Stochastic Equilibrium Models”.
   Defended on November 2000 in University of Paris I.

2. P.Y. Steunou, Research Assistant (Full-time), University of Le Mans.
   “Human capital and heterogeneity: theory and empirical evidences”
   Defended on September 2003 in University of Le Mans.

   “On the employment policies and unskilled unemployment: theory and applications on French data”.
   Defended on December 2005 in University of Paris I.

   “Essay on the Optimality of Unemployment Insurance”.
   Defended on June 2006 in University of Le Mans.

12.2 Forthcoming PhD Thesis

1. Mohamed Taglobi, University of Le Mans.
2. Coralia Quintero-Rojas, University of Le Mans.
3. Tarek Khaskhoussi, University of Le Mans.
4. Fouad Khaskhoussi, University of Le Mans.
5. Faouzi Sellem, University of Le Mans.
6. Anne Bucher, University of Le Mans.
13 Undergraduate Teaching Experience

- 2004-2006: Introduction to Economics, University of Le Mans (30h).
- 2005-2006: Open Economy Macroeconomics, University of Le Mans (24h).
- 2004: Labor Economics, University of Le Mans (24h).
- 1996-2003: Macroeconomics, University of Le Mans (36h).

14 Graduate Teaching Experience

- 2004-2006: General equilibrium and unemployment, Master 2, University of Le Mans (20h).
• 1998: Labor Economics, Master 2, University of Le Mans (20h).

15 Administrative Tasks

• Since 2002, Headmaster of the Licence-Master courses in Business and Economics for the University of Le Mans.

• 1999-2002 Headmaster of the Master in Economics for the University of Le Mans.

• 1997-1999, Headmaster of the Licence-Master courses in Economics for the University of Le Mans.