PSE - Assistant Professor of Economics

Position Title/Short Description
Title: Assistant Professor of Economics
Section: International: Full-Time Academic (Permanent, Tenure Track or Tenured)
Location: Paris, other, France
JEL Classification: 00 -- Default: Any Field
Deadline Date: 11/30/2011

Context
Paris School of Economics (PSE) is offering one or more Assistant Professor positions in Economics on competitive terms, starting Sept 1, 2012 or Oct 1, 2012 for a period of six years corresponding to a three year contract renewable once after a "mid-term" review. The assistant professors will then be offered a permanent positions in the French academic system following a successful tenure evaluation.

PSE invites applications from strong candidates in all areas of economics. It offers an exciting research environment, a low teaching load and no administrative obligations.

Proven research abilities are necessary and the PhD should be completed by the date of the appointment. Graduates of any country are eligible. Knowledge of French is NOT required.

Application Instructions
Full application instructions are available at http://econjobmarket.org/; applications should be received by November 30, 2011. Selected applicants will be offered an interview at Chicago during the ASSA meetings.

Online Application URL: https://econjobmarket.org/