

8th Eurhistock Conference

Paris School of Economics

48 Boulevard Jourdan

75014 Paris

9.00: Arrival and coffee

9.20: Welcome – Angelo Riva, European Business School and Paris School of Economics

9.30: An early securities market in full swing: New data on Amsterdam securities trading in the eighteenth century

Joost Jonker, University of Amsterdam and IISH (with Christiaan Von Bochove and Oscar Gelderblom)

Discussant: Michael Buchner, Saarland University

10.00: Playing the rules of the game. Counterparty risk at the Berlin Bourse, ca. 1860-1914

Michael Buchner, Saarland University

Discussant: Joost Jonker, University of Amsterdam and IISH

10.30: Finance and Growth: Did French Stock Markets Support Firms of the 2nd Industrial Revolution?

Emilie Bonhoure, Toulouse 1 Capitole and Toulouse Business School (with David Le Bris)

Discussant: Miguel Artola Blanco, Universidad Carlos III Madrid

11.00: coffee break

11.30: Microstructure and performance of stock exchange markets: the Lisbon Stock Exchange, 1837-1913

Rita Martins de Sousa, University of Lisbon (with Amélia Branco and Pedro Neves)

Discussant: Bert S. Kramer, University of Groningen

12.00: What are the effects of the introduction of corporate taxes in Nazi-occupied Netherlands?

Bert S. Kramer, University of Groningen (with Philip T. Fliers and Abe de Jong)

Discussant: Rita Martins de Sousa, University of Lisbon

12.30 lunch

14.30: Bank stocks and the Great Depression

Bryan Taylor II, Global Financial Data (with Gustavo Cortes and Marc Weidenmier)

Discussant: Raphaël Hekimian, ISG Business School and Paris School of Economics

15.00: Equity investment in an age of turbulence: Spain, 1900-1987

Miguel Artola Blanco, Universidad Carlos III Madrid (with Stefano Battilossi and Stefan O. Houpt)

Discussant: Bryan Taylor II, Global Financial Data

15.30 coffee break

16.00: The Big Bang: Stock Market Capitalization in the Long Run

Dmitry Kuvshinov, University of Bonn (with Kaspar Zimmermann)

Discussant: Leentje Moortgat, University of Antwerp

16.30: Stubborn dividends: 180 years of evidence from Belgium

Leentje Moortgat, University of Antwerp (with Jan Annaert and Marc Deloof)

Discussant: Dmitry Kuvshinov, University of Bonn