PRESENTATION

In September 2019, over 120 students will graduate from the three Masters of Paris School of Economics. Among them, about a third will join the labor market. Their analytical and quantitative skills are highly valued by companies that have to deal with complex, data-intensive business models, as well as the regulators and more generally the public administration.

The first PSE-Masters Job Forum will give our students the opportunity to better seize these job opportunities, and meet face-to-face with recruiters. On the other side, the recruiters will get the chance to learn more about the PSE students and match their profiles with future hirings. They may also offer internships starting in the beginning of 2019.

Description of the organisation:

Since 2010, the French railway sector has had an independent regulatory body which accompanies its gradual opening to competition. The “Macron” Act of 6 August 2015 extends the powers of the regulator to road activities: coach transport and motorways. On 15 October 2015, the rail regulatory body became the rail and road regulatory body (Arafer). Its mission is to contribute to the efficient operation of the public service and competitive activities for the benefit of rail and road transport customers. Its public opinions and decisions are adopted by a group composed of seven independent members chosen due to their expertise in railway, road, legal or economic matters or because of their expertise in competition matters and has been chaired since August 2016 by Bernard Roman.

Speaker at the roundtable:

Anne Yvrande-Billon, Vice President, Arafer

Anne YVRANDE-BILLON was appointed Vice President of the French Rail and Road Regulatory Body (ARAFER) in November 2014. In January 2018, she was appointed member of the OECD Network of Economic Regulators Bureau. Since April 2017, she sits on the French Ethics Commission for railways, and is the President of the “Club des Régulateurs” (Paris-Dauphine Foundation) since July 2017. She was the Chair of IRG-Rail (Independent Regulators’ Group) for the year 2017. She worked previously at the French Competition Authority (2011-2014), first as a senior economist, and then as the deputy chair of the Mergers Unit. Prior to joining the French Competition Authority, she worked at the French Council of Economic Analysis, an independent advisory body reporting to the Prime minister.

She holds a PhD in economics from the University of Paris Sorbonne where she is Associate Professor in Economics since 2003. Her research and publications are mostly in the fields of economics of contracts and regulation of utilities, with a particular interest in the public transport sector.

Anne Yvrande-Billon was awarded the rank of Knight in the National Order of Merit in May 2016.
