

Andréa Renk

University of Namur
Rue de Bruxelles 61, 5000 Namur
Belgium
Email: andrea.renk@unamur.be

Born: November 16, 1993—Paris, France
Nationality: French

Fields

Development Economics, Applied Microeconomics, Political Economy

Education

- 2018– Ph.D in Economics, Paris School of Economics (PSE) & University of Namur (UNamur)
Supervisors: Jean-Marie Baland & Akiko Suwa-Eisenmann
- 2015–2017 M.A. Public Policies and Development, PSE
- 2014–2015 B.A. in Applied Economics, Dauphine University
- 2012–2015 B.A. in Economics (secondary field: Sociology), CPES PSL-Henri IV

Working papers

Sterilizations and immunization in India: the Emergency experience (1975-77), with Charlotte Pelras (PSE)

Work in progress

Patriarchy and violence towards women in Nepal, with Clarice Manuel (UNamur)

Expansion of oil palm plantations, welfare and food security in Indonesia, with Cécile Bessou (CIRAD), Jérémie Gignoux (PSE-INRA), Julia Hélie (PSE), Francois Libois (PSE-INRA) and Akiko Suwa-Eisenmann (PSE-INRA)

Other publications

Justine Briaux, Yves Martin-Prevel, Sophie Carles, Sonia Fortin, Yves Kameli, Laura Adubra, Andréa Renk et al. “Evaluation of an unconditional cash transfer program targeting children’s first-1,000-days linear growth in rural Togo: A cluster-randomized controlled trial.” PLoS medicine 17, no. 11 (2020): e1003388.

(Poster) Renk, Andréa, Cécile Bessou, Akiko Suwa-Eisenmann, Jérémie Gignoux, François Libois, and Niels Welaard. “PERENA—Investigating the role of perennial crops in food security: the case of oil palm in Indonesia.” ICOPE, 2018.

Experience

TEACHING

2021-2022 T.A. Applied Econometrics, Graduate, UNamur

RESEARCH

2017 – 2018 Research Assistant (10 months) for project PERENA, research on the effects of the development of perennial crops on food security in South-East Asia

Supervisors: Jérémie Gignoux, Francois Libois, Akiko Suwa-Eisenmann

2016 Intern (4 months) at Research Institute for Development (IRD)

Supervisor: Mathilde Savy

FIELDWORK AND DATA ENTRY

2020 RA supervision for data entry in France

2018–2019 Digitization of selected sections of 6000+ documents located in different districts in Nepal

2016 Support for an RCT endline survey in Togo

Funding

2021 PSE Development group funds, 550 euros, on-site exploration and partial digitization of historical documents

2021-2022 EOS Grant for 4th year Ph.D

2020 CEPREMAP, 3200 euros, manual data entry of historical documents

2018-2021 INRA & EOS Grant, co-financing of 3 years doctoral contract

Conferences and seminars

2022 IRES seminar (UCLouvain), Internal development seminar (PSE, planned), CRED workshop (UNamur, planned), Cornell 100 years of Economic Development (Ithaca, planned)

2021 CRED workshop (UNamur), Internal seminar (PSE), EOS workshop (online), 16th Annual Conference on Economic Growth and Development (Indian Statistical Institute, online)

2020 CRED workshop (UNamur), Internal development seminar (PSE)

2018 RWI workshop on deforestation and energy access (Essen)

Service

JOURNAL REFEREE

Environment and Development Economics

Skill and languages

Stata (advanced), python (intermediate), \LaTeX , GIS software (QGIS, GrassGIS, geopandas)

English (fluent), French (native), Spanish (intermediate)